

JASON VIEAUX

CRITICAL ACCLAIM RECORDINGS

"Vieaux revels in the intimate and sinuous aspects of Albeniz's art. He employs vibrato to carried expressive effect and sends harmonics soaring from the instrument as if they were floating objects. The spectrum of articulations he manages is so broad that he sustains lines with unusual suspense."

"There are now many finger-perfect guitarists on tap but those of Vieaux's natural musicality are rare indeed; everything in the moulding of the phrases comes from within—you just can't programme sensitivity of this kind...an issue of the greatest distinction, by a player of whom we shall un-doubtedly hear many more good things."

Gramophone

"...there's a wonderful young guitarist—when I say young, this guy is about 25 years old. But he's been a prize-winning guitarist since he was in his teens. His name is Jason Vieaux. And it's just played beautifully. This man has an absolutely astonishing technique. And he's one of the most natural musicians I've ever met."

NPR's Morning Edition, Ted Libbey

"As a performer Jason Vieaux's enjoyment of the music and joy of playing transcends the technicalities of the recording process. These attributes contribute to the effect that Jason is performing here and now, just for you, a rare quality in the recordings of even the most revered artists."

Classical CD Review—London

"Well done! This young man has the right feeling for rhythm, his technique leaves nothing to be desired, and his interpretation makes one melt...I have not enjoyed the first CD of a new artist as much as this one for a long time. We should remember his name."

Gitarre und Laute—Germany

"...an unusually promising newcomer...playing with vigour, accuracy and a great deal of musical understanding..."
